*I cannot ask you to name this now closed pub!
However can you name the Landlord & Landlady?
Clue- the Landlady shares her name with a drink now popular with students! I know this drink wasn't even available in the pub when I drunk there in the 70's.
Answers will be given at Branch Meeting on 13th March*

QUOTE FOR TODAY

The Glosters were preparing to make their epic last stand on the Imjin River (Hill 235) in Korea in 1951. An officer was touched to hear two signallers argue the merits of different beers. 'A voice that surely came from Bristol was declaring: "I don't care what you say about your fancy London beers, John. As far as I'm concerned, there's no beer in the world like George's Home Brewed."

-Captain Anthony Farrar-Hockley, adjutant of the Glosters.
