CAMRA members & guests photographed at the Blacksmiths Arms Little Clacton during the very enjoyable Pub Garden Social trip. We visited five pubs in total during this 'Campaigning' Saturday afternoon. As well as the 'Blackies' we visited the Weeley Black Boy, Grt Bentley Plough Inn, Brightlingsea Rosebud, Frating Kings Arms and last but not least Ye Olde CherryTree at Little Oakley.

There is no prize for the correct answer this month, it is just for fun. Can you name this now closed pub and the village it was located in. Clue:-There is now no open pub in this village.

This was a favourite haunt when my wife & I were courting. We often had 'chicken & chips in a basket' that culinary delight is as rare as 'Chopper Bikes & Space Hoppers' are, they were all popular at the time!

QUOTE FOR TODAY

If you want Real Ale, to meet girls/boys, good food, good music, deafening music, etc – search the internet. As we go to press we have the likes of Facebook, Twitter, etc. In years to come, it will surely be even easier – if there are any pubs left!

Jess A Jephcott – commenting on what you shouldn't be using his excellent reference book for!
