RambAle - Meet Ed at the White Hart Weeley Heath at about 12:20pm. After a drink we'll leave at about 12:50 and depending how things go should arrive at the Railway Tavern in Brightlingsea at about 17:30. Walking boots recommended as some of the footpaths cross fields. There is a mini bus arranged which will leave the Railway Tavern and return you home.

QUOTE FOR TODAY

The pub name 'White Hart' is one of the most popular in the land and would probably have derived from the coat of arms of King Richard II.

Jess A Jephcott

Mick Hearn – In 1392 Richard II ordered those who brewed ale to sell must hang a sign outside their premises

*Tendring Branch Membership now stands at

This picture was taken during the very enjoyable first Tendring Branch weekend away to the Cotswolds. The weather was great which made it even more fun being a very beautiful part of the country.

The Landlord (Mark Diggins) of the White Hart in Weeley Heath wanted a couple of ciders for his pub! Jim Gadbury and myself were pleased to oblige, pictured with farmer Nick at 'Seven Cider' in the Forrest of Dean. You can now sample both ciders (Farmhouse Dry & Somerset Red Streak Medium at the White Hart.
