Can you name this rural 'Lost Pub' in our patch and its location?

I did go in here back in the 70's but the pub has been demolished for sometime! Answers will be given at the Branch Meeting on 12th November at the Railway Tavern Brightlingsea.

QUOTE FOR TODAY

What a 200 year Anniversary this month !
On Monday, 17th October 1814, the Great London Beer Flood took place. When the Meux's House Shoe Breweries main porter vat burst, starting a chain reaction. Between 2.3 & 2.6 million pints of beer cause a tidal wave. It demolished the 25-foot high, one foot thick brew house wall killing at least 8 people in the surrounding densely packed houses.

This picture was taken at the Chappel Beer Festival in September featuring some of the branch members that made their yearly pilgrimage. This year we took 2 full mini buses to this great festival.

Our next Beer Festival social trips are on 3rd & 4th December, from Clacton (with pick-ups on route) to The Harwich & Dovercourt Bay Winter Ale Festival. If you would like a seat please get back to me.
