Picture taken at the Fat Cat during the branch pub run-about in Ipswich. Here we have Nick Allgrove making some sort of 'proposal' to the ladies!! Also in the picture are branch members Frances Gadbury, Hilary Parsons & Graham Pettit.

We had a great day, first pub was St Judes what a fantastic quirky pub with sawdust on the floor. Then the Fat Cat where our members demolished their supply of 'Legendary' Scotch Eggs and last The Dove which was holding a Beer Festival.

QUOTE FOR TODAY

Beer Day Britain (the first UK national beer day) 15th June

At 12.15pm on 15th June why not take part in a nationwide communal cheers. The time of 12.15pm relates to the year Magna Carta was sealed. It is the 800th anniversary of the signing of Magna Carta by the leading Barons of the Land and King John on 15th June 1215. King John toasted the signing of the "great charter" with flagons of ale.
