This picture was taken in our cider POTY the Globe in Harwich during our recent Social/Short meeting in Harwich. You will note that the pub dog Baillie the (female) rescue (ex-racing) greyhound has pride of place in the pub. Our very short meeting took place in the Stingray which left enough time (if members wished) to visit other pubs in the area. That is the purpose of this type of meeting.

QUOTE FOR TODAY

...But what does fit, is the magic and cultural power of the bar, not a place to simply go for a drink, but a watering hole where people gather to be together.
~ Gabe Barry of Brooklyn Brewery

Tendring Branch Membership now stands at 789

Our Pub of the Year (POTY) is the Hanover in Harwich and our cider POTY is the Globe also in Harwich.

Our entries for the next CAMRA Good Beer Guide (GBG) have been finalised and submitted to the area organiser. Buy the 2020 GBG in September to find out which of our pubs are in it.

If you are interested could you please register an interest in any of the forthcoming branch activities.

Saturday 27th April Morris Traveller. We go round in a large coach with the Morris Dancers on board & visit 4 pubs.

Saturday 4th May Harwich Ale Trail, whilst there is good public transport into Harwich if you would like me to try & sort out a mini bus let me know.

Wednesday 22nd May 'Mystery' pub run-about, if anyone has any suggestions for pubs/route we should take please get back to me?

Saturday 8th June Historic Harwich walk. This is a guided tour of the town by a local tour guide which will include a stop in a pub and probably end up in another!

Saturday 6th July Norwich visit by train.
