Photograph taken at the very enjoyable Annual Branch Garden Party, hosted by Judith & Jeff. Whilst the party was a great success you will note that Geoff Manning didn't make a success of his loaf carving!

There is a prize for the correct answers this month. If you email me the correct 3 answers & attend the Branch AGM I will put your name in a draw and I will buy the lucky person 2 pints of Ale on the 13th June. From 1936 to 1952 this was a club for people that lived on the estate being built around an old farmstead.

Can you name this now closed pub (& yes there was once a pub front where the two bottom windows now are) in our patch, the surname of the last Landlord (from a local publican dynasty) and the reason Tendring Council insisted the area behind the wall at the side remained a car park?

QUOTE FOR TODAY

With what feelings of pleasure the traveller's thoughts turn to the inns of bygone days! Sweet remembrance is awakened of the good fellowship, conviviality, genial hospitality, and comfort therein, particularly of those that were of good repute.
- J Phillips 1906
